

Western Suburbs
District Cricket Club

Life Member

Glen Lochiel Cameron

Glen Lochiel CAMERON (Born 10 July 1912, Died 29 May 1984) played for the club through the thirties scoring 1485 runs and later participated in the administration. Not that his predecessors weren't club enthusiasts, but Glen had the ability to engender his enthusiasm to players at all levels. Glen was best man at Bill Brown's wedding and one of his close confidants.

After completing school at Brisbane Grammar School, he commenced working as a bank officer and after war service with 2/25 Battalion joined the service of the Shell Company. He later moved to the transport industry, retiring as Chief Sales Executive of T.N.T.

Glen's presence is still felt in the club through his son in law Marcus Titley, grandson Chris and granddaughter Alison.

Glen Cameron was made a Life Member on 25th July 1974. Upon his passing on 29th May 1984, Glen had served 56 years with the club.

Glen served in the following positions in the club:

1. Executive Committee
2. President 28th July 1966 until retiring on 24th July 1980
3. Chairman of the Committee 14th March 1973 to 28th July 1977
4. Club Patron 1980, a position he retained until his death.